Sisseretta Jones, the Original Black Patti at the Opera House, Wednesday, February 19

To Our Brother Farmers.

Have you called your hogs around you and counted the good brood sows that you will have for Spring farrow? Should you have enough, why not buy one or two more to make sure you have a good crop of Spring pigs? You say you have the feed. Yes. Well look what hogs are worth and have been all winter. Is not the proposition highly remunerative? Nothing will beat it. The people of this nation are looking to you for food and the price of meat is almost prohibitive, especially to the working people, who are compelled to have it in order to successfully perform the labor required of them.

Cholera and high prices have caused the shipment of immature stock hogs and even the breeding herds until today we find a great shortage over the country. You will find a splendid opportunity to buy high class sows in J. O. Duncan's sale at Lebanon, Ky., Feb. 27th.
Fifty head, all immunized. Look up his announcement this issue.

The Original Black Patti Coming.

The only and Original Black Patti (Madame Sisseretta Jones) is given a wide scope and patrons of the Grand Opera House of this city will have a chance to see the greatest singer in a production well suited to her talents. "Happy" Julius Glenn, the funniest of the funny comedians, will also have a chance to make you laugh, forget those blues and go home happy and contented.
Other members of the company are All Watts, Charles C. Bougie, G. W.
Harris, T. L. Seaton, Estelle Coan, James Reede, Eddie Borden, W. A.
Cooke, Jeanette Cooke.

W. BUSH NELSON, Seedman, 293m fri Lexington, Ky.

Beckham Wrote It.

During a colloquy in the Senate between Senators Paynter and Lodge over the Constitutional amendment which provides that a President cannot hold but one term, it developed that the plank in the Baltimore platform, which pledged the democratic party to that principle, "was written by Ex-Governor Beckham, who was a member of the resolution committee.

Simply a Funeral.

We have been asked if a republican convention could be termed a public gathering. Time was when it could be thus termed, but the "old guard" are so few in numbers that the term will no longer apply to them. "A funeral" would be a more appropriate name for such a gathering.—London Echo. (Rep.)

"Big Ben Bargains" Are Advertised by J. S. Stanifer.
Sale Begins Saturday.

This issue carries elsewhere an announcement of a Public Sale of J. S.
Stanifer's stock of Clothing, Shoes and Furnishings. This is advertised as something more than an ordinary Clearance Sale. Mr. Stanifer says the bargain offered will eclipse all previous efforts along this line, because he is compelled to sell at least $10,000's worth of his stock before March 1st, in order for him to make some important changes in his business, which cannot be carried out until the stock is reduced a great deal.

An unusual offer of $1 cash to each of the ten persons who are first to enter the store when the sale opens at 9 a. m. on tomorrow, Saturday morning, Feb.
15th, has created considerable interest and there is sure to be a large crowd on hand.

Another feature of the sale which will make it an object to the people to attend the sale every day is what Mr.
Stanifer terms his "Big Ben Bargains," which will be offered every day for one half hour only. Every day something different will be offered at a price said to be below wholesale in every instance from 10 to 10.30 a. m. only. Mr. Stanifer explains that this will be done simply to attract big crowds of people every day whom he frankly states he expects will buy many other goods too, once they are in the store and see the unusual values on every hand.

Col. Walton's Dilemma.

President-elect Wilson has consented to succumb to custom and to wear a high hat that used to be called a "bee-gun" on the day of his inauguration.
Col. Will Walton has been appointed by Thomas Nelson Page, the author, to be one of the reception committee. Therefore Col. Walton is in the middle of a bad fix. The colonel has plenty of money to indulge in the frivolities of life, but he has been too busy fighting shams and frauds all his life to pay very much attention to personal adornment.
A slouch hat and sack coat, necessarily with trousers, has always meant the height of Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes with Walton. But he has allowed himself to go on dress parade. Now he is up against it. He's got to follow the leader, and if he follows and Thomas Nelson are dressed up, so must the Colonel from Kentucky.—Bowling Green Messenger.

Kentuckians in Senate.

The advent of Judge Kavanaugh, of Arkansas, into the U. S. Senate a few days ago made the total number of native-born Kentuckians now serving in the Senate reach eight. This is a distinction that no other State in the Union enjoys. These eight are Senators Paynter, Bradley, Cullom, Fall, Mark Smith, Kavanaugh, Bristow and Stone.

Count In Popularity Contest
To Be Made Tomorrow.

"Whooop'er up, Liza Jane," seems to be the slogan of nearly all the candidates in the Climax's voting contest, and as a result, there may be some surprises in store.

The second count of the ballots will be made next Saturday evening, Feb.
15th, and the name of the winner will be announced in next Tuesday's issue of the Climax.

Remember the ballot box will be closed at 4 p. m., Saturday next, Feb. 15th, and those who are holding their votes should rush them in now, so they will be sure to be here for the count.

Remember also that many of our leading merchants are interested in this contest and give 25 vote coupons with every dollar cash purchase. Also those who do not fully understand the rules and regulations of this contest can call at this office and we will go over the proposals with them.

For every seven new yearly subscriptions, 10,000 extra, a total of 14,200 votes.

For every seven renewal subscriptions, 8,000 extra, a total of 11,000 votes.

For every seven back subscriptions, 6,000 extra, a total of 8,500 votes.

For every 40 merchant's coupons brought to this office and counted by the publisher or his assistant, a bonus of 500 extra votes. This will make a total of 1,500 votes.

These coupons may be collected from any and all merchants who are in the contest.

Remember the $15 in gold goes to the young lady who makes the GREATEST GAIN in the number of votes.

Bear in mind that the ballot box will be closed at 4 p. m. on Saturday, Feb. 15.
Be sure and have all your votes in by that time so that you will have a fair chance to show what your standing is.
As soon as the ballot box is closed the count will be made and the result announced in the following issue of the Climax, which will be Tuesday next.

Pleased With The Poultry Show.

Lincoln county poultry fanciers who exhibited at the big show at Richmond last week, came home with flying colors.
Four exhibitors won their shares of the premiums offered, and in addition captured the only cups offered by the Association. Lincoln's four exhibitors were Arthur C. Hill, C. S. Lyons, A. C. Alford, all of Stanford and vicinity, and A.
C. Coffey, of McKinney.

The Madison County Poultry Association's show, was conducted under the rule of the American Poultry Association, and proved to be very successful.
There were many exhibitors from all over the State and there must have been over 1,200 birds in the entire show.

The judge, Mr. T. M. Campbell, of Darlington, Ind., placed his awards to the satisfaction of every one. The Madison Poultry Association is a new one, but those who had attended other shows before this said that this year's was the best that had yet been given.—Interior Journal.

Dalton Caught and Returned To Jail.

"Buckskin Bill" Dalton, who with several prisoners escaped jail here some months ago, was caught at Rowland, his old home, by the sheriff of Lincoln and Chief of Police B. D. Carter, of Stanford. Dalton was serving a term for stealing whisky from a government warehouse. Coleman T aylor, who was sentenced at the same time on the same charge and who escaped with Dalton, is still at large.

Nunnally's stock pens were completely filled with cattle Monday and the crowd which came to town for February court, was a very large one. Notwithstanding the large bunches of cattle brought to town, few were of exceptionally high class, most of them being of a poor grade of steers and some rough cows and calves. All that were good enough to sell brought top prices, however. Some went as high as $22 a head, while others ranged as low as $20. A few were under that, however. Hogs and shoats sold without any trouble at 6 to 7 1-2 cts. a pound. Mule buyers were plentiful and had to pay high prices for everything they bought, ranging from $125 to $200. James Meafee, of Shelby county, bought 11 Jersey cowboys at $15 to $20. J. M. Cross bought of D. M.
Cross 32 100-pound shoats at 6 1-2 cts.
Also bought 25 barrels of corn from Jno.

livered two tons of timothy hay to Bob Sanders at Danville at $14 a ton. Carroll Shanks bought 62 90 pound shoats from F. L. Thompson at $7.40 per hundred; and from Thurlow Jones 25 head, about the same weight, at $7.—Interior

Fruit Farm for Pulaski.

C. D. Smith, of Richmond, was in Somerset this week in connection with the establishment in Pulaski county of a 1,000-acre fruit farm among the farmers of the county. His plan is to form an organization among the farmers who will furnish the land. The Normal School at Richmond will furnish a man to instruct in setting, cultivating, pruning, picking and marketing the fruit.
The Q. & C. railroad has pledged to help in furnishing trees to the enterprise. Pulaski county is favorably located as a fruit growing county, and the fruit grown there is of fine flavor and good quality.

PRICE $1.00 PER YEAR
IN ADVANCE

FEBRUARY 14, 1913

Talk about the high cost of living, how does this, from a Washington paper strike you?

Housewives who visited the Center Market this morning uttered cries of dismay on discovering that spring lamb of the crop of 1913 was retailing at $1 per pound.

This would make a leg of lamb cost from $6 to $8, and the price is said to be the highest ever recorded at this time of the year.

The "trimmings" that generally accompany a succulent spring lamb, mint and green peas, retailing at ten cents a bunch and fifteen cents a quart, respectively.

Prices of nearly all commodities are advancing and dealers regard the outlook for any decrease in the immediate future as not encouraging.

The Santa Rosa, the first passenger and freight steamship flying the American flag to commence a regular service between New York and San Francisco and Seattle has started on her maiden trip around the Horn. The opening of the Panama canal will revolutionize the American shipping interests, to say nothing of the world traffic that will profit by the shorter route. The Straits of Magellan will soon become one of the loneliest highways of a great maritime trade.

There are a round dozen candidates for assessor down in Lincoln county and the democratic primary is yet six months off. The cleverest and best people under the canopy of high heaven live in old Lincoln but their love for office is distressing. It may not be true but it has been said that some of the children down there learn to say "office" before they slip mamma and papa.

The Washington Senate has passed a bill prohibiting the intermarriage of whites and colored races except where both are citizens of the United States. The bill is said to have been devised to prohibit Japanese from marrying white women. According to this there is no bar placed on the Caucasian and the Negro, both being American born. Most of the States have passed laws prohibiting the marriage of whites and blacks.

Hookworm Campaign Opened in Madison.

Dr. J. S. Lock, of the Hookworm Commission, with a corps of assistants, has been in here making examinations for hookworm. More than 1,000 persons were listed for inspection, 286 of which have been examined with the following results: 52 cases of hookworm, 55 in fact with round worm, 34 with stomach worm, and eight with dwarf tape worm. It should be explained that individuals often not only have hookworm, but two or three other kinds as well.

Good Tobacco Sales Continue.

Mr. Rufus McCord, one of Madison county's oldest and most respected citizens, suffered a stroke of paralysis at his home near Shearer Wednesday morning.
His speech and entire right side were affected. News from his bedside this morning was that he had about recover-

The home of Jake Parrish, in the Brookstown locality of this county, was destroyed with its contents Thursday afternoon. Some clothes which were hung by the fire ignited and when Mrs.
Parrish entered the room a great blaze met her. Fortunately she escaped injury, but her escape was a narrow one. Mr.
Parrish was out on his farm when the fire occurred. It was only last year that Mr. Parrish's barn was struck by light-

Commissioner of Agriculture Newman says that already fifty-three ears of corn raised by Lester Bryant of Warren county, the corn club champion, who died from asphyxiation while on a trip to Washington City, have been sold at $1 apiece. The plan is to sell his corn at this price and use the money for erecting a suitable monument to his memory. He raised 147 bushels on an acre, and won the sweepstakes for the whole United States, the prize given for raising the most corn for the least expenditure. 37 tf

COVINGTON & BANKS

Opera House, Wednesday Night, February 19th

Black Patti

Look Out.

I see by the papers that some of our citizens are being called upon to become members of the next Legislature. The people of our state have not heretofore given sufficient attention to this matter.
If we want good laws, we must select able, conscientious, fearless men to make our laws, and this cannot and will not be done unless some interest is taken in the selection of the man or men who make our laws. We must wake up, and remember that it is our own fault and neglect if the welfare of all the people is not well guarded.
It is too late to complain after an oppressive law is passed. See to it that the right man is sent to Frankfort and there will be no cause for complaint. No man should be voted for who is under the control or influence of any combination, trust or incorporation.
Nor should any man be considered who is not broad enough to see and know what law or laws will be for the interest of the whole people. If necessary, put questions to the candidates and make them speak out and if they will not do this, then don't vote for them. Madison county is a great country. It has an intelligent population and it should have a capable, strong, honest man to represent her next winter and to look after her interest in all legislation that may be proposed.
An Old Democrat.

Took The Dynamite Route.

Edward Parker, aged 57, who lived in the Fall Lick neighborhood, four miles northwest of Crab Orchard, while temporarily insane, went out to his barn, placed a stick of dynamite on the ground and then laid his head on it. This done he applied a match to the dynamite, blowing off his head, neck, right shoulder and arm, of which no part has been found. His wife, who had gone to the barn to milk and was near by when the explosion took place, was knocked down as was the cow but neither was hurt.
Besides his wife, Parker leaves several children. He was well liked by his neighbors.
All kinds of staple and fancy groceries, rice, field seeds, hay, corn and oats. D.

Black Patti.

The Black Patti show, which comes to the Opera House on the 19th, in a new play, "Captain Jasper," grows in favor at every appearance. It has reached its stride for speed, and the management has been compelled to cut out in-termissions on several occasions, owing to the numerous encores. No time is lost passing from one number to another, or a song here and a dance there.
"Captain Jasper" is the same all of the time—up to the top notch of satisfaction. It's one riot of mirth, melody and color. You're to blame if you miss it.
Garleton Sisters Still Making Good.

The Garleton Sisters Company is still making good at the Grand Opera House.
Large crowds attend nightly and leave the opera house highly pleased. Last night "A Struggle For Life" was presented in manner pleasing to all. Tonight the bill will be "The Tiger and Lamb," a feud play, laid in the mountains of Tennessee. Tomorrow, Saturday night, "The Blackmailers," will be offered. This play deals with the underworld of New York City and presents much of the Rosenthal gambling and final murder, as well as the prominent part of Lieke, condemned to death, look in the removal of the noted gambler. There will be no matinee Saturday afternoon, as was first advertised.

Circuit Court Adjourns.

Circuit court made its final adjournment Thursday, after a session of nearly three weeks. Not a great deal of important work was disposed of, but quite a number of minor cases, such as illicit whisky selling, gaming, carrying concealed weapons and the like, were tried.
Very little civil business occupied the attention of the court.
During its sitting the grand jury found and returned 46 indictments. Many of them were for selling whisky, several for selling cocaine and a few each for gaming and carrying concealed deadly weapons. In its report the condition of the jail was referred to. The grand jurors charged that the jail is a filthy and unsanitary condition, that the walls are black and bespattered with tobacco juice, the floors and corners are full of dirt, etc., etc. The further charge is made that vermin exist in the castle.
After reading the report we called on Jailer Jones, who had heard of the charge. Questioned about the condition of the jail, he said: "We scour the jail every Thursday morning from top to bottom and sweep it every day. In the summer we scour twice a week and sometimes oftener, if it is necessary. I am taking care of the jail as I was when other grand juries visited it and complimented the condition of the institution. The grand jury made its visit early Wednesday morning before the jail had been swept and a day before the weekly scouring, and I am not surprised that they found things somewhat out of order. Regarding the existence of vermin, I will say that we make a hard fight against such a thing. Prisoners have frequently been put in with the pesky insects on them, but we invariably give them a good cleaning as soon as possible. Had the jurors only made their visit after, instead of before, the regular cleaning-up hour I am confident that no such report would have been made."

Green Million Dies of His Injuries.

Mr. Green Million, who was horribly injured by falling off train No. 31 several miles this side of Winchester Thursday morning, died of his injuries at Pat-tie A. Clay Infirmary at 8:10 that evening. He was conscious for only a short time and while he told those at his bedside he fell off train 31, he gave no other particulars. He went over on the 6:20 train the morning before. Mr. Million, who had been engaged as salesman in the store of Covington & Banks, of this city, for a long time, and numbered his friends by his acquaintances, was found by the northbound Cincinnati train on Thursday morning and taken to Winchester, where medical attention was given him. It was found that his right arm and right leg were badly mangled and that there were other injuries. The L. & N. made up a special train and sent the wounded man to this city and he was taken to the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary, where physicians were summoned. It was clearly seen that the chances of his recovery were few and no operation was performed. How or why he fell from the train may never be known. The case is one of the saddest we have had to chronicle in many years, and unbounded sympathy goes out to the mother, Mrs. Thomas Million, and the five sisters, who survive him.
May the Giver of all good and perfects gifts give them strength to bear the fearful blow. Mr. Million was 28 years old and a fine, energetic man, honest and pleasing in manners and the friend of every one. He will be missed, sadly missed, by all, but the mother, proud of her noble son, will feel her loss the greatest.
Funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Claude Walton on Clyndon avenue at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after which the burial will occur in Richmond cemetery. Rev. Owen Young, of the Newby section, will conduct the service.

McCreary Likely Will Not Run.

The following is from the Political Page of the Louisville Times and our readers can take it for what it is worth:
"A number of Frankfort politicians who have been in Louisville this week expressed themselves as of the opinion that Gov. McCreary would decline the issue and stay out of the race for U. S.
Senator. They say that everything was "ribbed up" for the Governor to toss his hat in the ring, but that certain developments have come about that make it extremely unlikely that he will become a candidate for the toga. On the other hand there are those who insist that he is already in the race for Senator and is reserving his official announcement to suit his own good time."

Pocket Lined With $150,000.

"Uncle Ike" Stephenson demonstrated to some employees in the Senate that a man with a check for $150,000 is more immune from robbery than a man with $5.
Senator Stephenson, who is said to be the richest man in the Senate, and who loves to talk about his money, showed some of the gaping Senate employees a check for $150,000. It was in payment of lumber and timber lands sold to a Louisiana company.
It appeared "Uncle Ike" had carried the check several days. One employe protested that he was too careless with it and was likely to lose it.
"What if I did?" asked the lumberman. "Nobody could cash it." This is the biggest draft seen about the capitol since the time, years ago, when Henry Gassaway Davis displayed one for $7,000,000. He had just sold a railroad—Philadelphia Record.

President-elect Wilson stated that he would announce the names of the members of his Cabinet March 4.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Ure, of Germany, and Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, in time causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. Then, it is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in creating the scalp and hair as Resall "93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Ure, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else can to remove dandruff and falling hair; and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Resall "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. You more request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes: 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Resall "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store!

Millinery At The Horse Show.

A visit to the recent Horse Show convinced one that little millinery was worth that could be used to good advantage as a criterion for what is to come later on for Spring. The manufacturers were more or less disappointed. The daily papers ridiculed as much as praised what the fashionable men and women wore.

White furs and black velvet hats were worn by every woman. Many little close fitting turbans with a shock of black Numidi standing erect at the front, a feature that will probably be featured in the Spring.

Bernard red was much worn and gowns and hats of this dazzling color were both rich and gorgeous. The most striking novelty worn on the head was made of rich Fuchsia shade velvet cut in a square about the size of a handkerchief, two points being folded up and under the two points at the side being drawn down over the ears. A fancy band of Etruscan gold was banded across the front and the back. The little cap fitted so closely and snugly to the head of blonde hair that it could be worn to a theatre and would not have to be re-dressed absolutely no height to it.

Many ladies wore head dresses of black English waterproof malle trim with jet or rhinestone ornaments. Now that a malle has been placed on the market that is not affected by perspiration, it is much worn next to the hair without frame for a support. Pretty malle bows at the back with bands encircling the head were in much evidence everywhere. One very handsome little hat with a narrow wide band around the head to support it had a bill baker's crown of black English malle with a jet ornament at the front, and was trimmed with a bunch of black Paradise plumes at the side.

The greater majority of the hats had the trimming on the brim. One wide brim hat with a tight, soft circular crown had the Paradise standing erect at the extreme edge of the hat. The Millinery Trade Review.

The best of everything for the black cake, all fresh and new.

Jail Preacher Soon Returns.

During the Sunday evening services in the county jail at Scranton, Pa., Jas. Johnson was the principal speaker. Johnson drew his lesson from the crime of larceny, which had sent many of his auditors to the cells they were occupying, and exhorted the men to keep away from theft when they once more gained their freedom.

At the conclusion of the services Johnson returned to his home, only to be met by an officer with a warrant, charging him with chicken stealing. He could not furnish bail, and within three hours after preaching in the county jail was himself occupying a cell alongside the men he had exhorted to give up sin.

MARRIED

At the home of President Hibben, of Princeton University, Mrs. Grover Cleveland became the bride of Thomas J. Preston, a professor in the university.

Miss Annie Ginn and Mr. Elmer E. Lowellyn, both of Irvine, were married at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Dr. G. W. Crutchfield. They were attended by Miss Maude Turner and H. G. Denner, also of Irvine. Miss Ginn is a niece of Mrs. Ollie Powell, of this city.

The Song of Songs.

Over the roar of the cities,
Over the hush of the hills,
Is heard a song that never stops, A voice that never stills.

Epic-loud as the sea is,
Lyric-low as the dew,
It sings and sings a soul into things,
And builds the world anew.

Dauntless, deathless, stern but kind, Bold and free and strong,
It sweeps with mastery man's mind,
And roils the world along.

From soul to soul it wings its words,
And, lo, the darkness flies;
And all who heed that song of songs View earth with other eyes.

New eyes, new thoughts that shall glow New, new, new things that shall glow Until the light of the farthest dawn Shall fold its rainbow wings.

Madison Cawein.

Can't Hurt This Sow.

Mr. Robt. Jennings, who lives on Silver creek, tells us that some time last fall a valuable sow he owns fell into an old well which is eighteen or twenty feet deep and remained there for some time, lost to the world and his owner.

She was accidentally discovered in the well and the next thing to get her out. A block and tackle was secured and after considerable difficulty, she was drawn to the top. The sow was pretty well starved out and badly bruised and battered. So bad was her condition that Mr. Jennings had little hope of her getting well, but she began to mend, all the same, and a few days ago she presented her owner with a litter of eleven of the finest pigs he has seen for a long time.

Helm Voted For Temperance Measure.

Our representative, Hon. Harvey Helm, voted for the Webb temperance measure and reflected the sentiment of his constituency. Congressman Johnson, Fields, Langley and Powers also voted for it. While Shirley, James, Cantrell and Rouse voted for the liquor side of the proposition. Stanley and Thomas dodged the issue by being absent.

Two Modern Valentines.

The tailor sent his bill to Smith, Whose statement had run overtime, And underneath his "Please remit," The tailor wrote this little rhyme:

"As sure as the vine Grows round the stump, I'll sue you if You don't, you chump!"

Smith laid the bill upon a pile That loomed above him, mountain high; Then, with a rather weary smile, He penned the tailor this reply:

"Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
I'm now bankrupt,
So go on and sue!"

The Cruise of the Good Ship Little Tot

BY EDWARD VANCE COOKE—ILLUSTRATED BY RICH

Do you know the ocean called Nurseryland? Do you think it is a safe sea, like our own? But the Nursey-land lies in a dangerous spot, and the Table-land and the Open-Door are perilous rocks for the "Little Tot". Unbubbled, unbelted, and unmarked by a light To pilot the venturesome mariner right. Yet the "Little Tot" bravely prepares to start. And weighing anchor at Papa's Knee, And pointing a course to take the best Of Baby's Lullabies, she studies her chart.

And to Mama's Lap Harbor forth sails she. And it's yo ho ho, and all hands stand by! And it's steer by the light in the Harbor eye.

A lurch to port and a starboard list; Steadily, there, steadily, keep her straight! 'Tis a terrible sea to navigate. A stagger, a plunge, and a sudden twist; She is going aground as sure as fate! And Mama's Lap Harbor and Papa's Knee Pull the good ship "Little Tot" out of the sea!

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional medicine. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running nose or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; times out of times are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.
